AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $37,092 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Debt Management Center – 389
PO Box 11930
St. Paul, Minnesota 55110
RE: Mary Lou Karr Claim # 550-82-7324

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $25, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the beginning of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

USA vs. MICHELLE KAY JARRETTDocket No.: LACR12-01083MWF-VAP

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency under 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to the restitution order.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Michelle Kay Jarrett, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of twelve (12) months and one (1) day. This term consists of twelve (12) months and one (1) day on each of Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 1, 2 and 3 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug or alcohol treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic or alcohol addiction, or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
5. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of supervision, under 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.

Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on Monday, June 22, 2015. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before Monday, June 22, 2015 to the United States Marshal located at:
